Introduction

This Cookies Policy explains what cookies are and how Waterloo Capital L.P. (<https://waterloocap.com/>) uses them. You should read this policy to understand what types of cookies we use, the information collected using cookies, and how that information is used.

Cookies do not typically contain information that directly identifies you. However, information collected through cookies may be associated with other information we maintain about you. For further information about how we use personal data, please review our Privacy Policy.

What Are Cookies

Cookies are small text files placed on your computer or mobile device when you visit a website. Cookies are widely used to make websites work efficiently and to provide reporting information.

How We Use Cookies

Waterloo Capital L.P. may use cookies for the following purposes:

- Essential Cookies: Cookies that are technically necessary for the website to function properly, including security and network management.
- Analytics Cookies: Cookies set by analytics providers that collect information such as IP address, device information, and browsing activity. This information may be collected using pseudonymous identifiers and is used to understand website usage and improve our services.

Essential Cookies

Essential cookies are required for the website to function properly. These cookies may support security, network management, and core technical operations. Strictly necessary cookies do not require consent under applicable privacy laws because they are required for the website to operate.

Managing Cookies

At this time, we do not provide a separate cookie preference management tool. You may control or delete cookies through your browser settings. Most web browsers allow you to block or delete cookies.

Please consult your browser's help documentation for instructions.

Browser Privacy Signals

Some browsers offer privacy preference signals such as Global Privacy Control (GPC) or Do Not Track (DNT). At this time, our website does not respond differently based on these signals.

Third-Party Cookies

We may use third-party services, such as analytics providers, that set cookies when you visit our website. These third parties may collect information about your browsing activity in accordance with their own privacy policies. We do not control how third parties use the data they collect.

Your Rights

Depending on your location, you may have rights under applicable privacy laws to access, correct, or request deletion of your personal information. Please refer to our Privacy Policy for more information.

Updates to This Cookies Policy

We may update this Cookies Policy from time to time to reflect operational, legal, or regulatory changes. When updates are made, the revised policy will be posted on our website with an updated 'Last Updated' date.
